Terms of competition

1. Participants

The following terms must be fulfilled by a participant:

- female and born 2000 or earlier
- member of a golf club or of a national golf union
- a maximum handicap of 24,0 at the time of entry expiry

2. Entry and withdrawal

Entry must be made by phone or email to Dalsjö GC. Entry expiry is 6 June and entry fee is SEK 1 300 which must be paid before the time of starting. If more players enter than there are places in the competition the selection of players will be made by lowest exact handicap at the time of entry expiry and a reserve list will be published on the championship website. Players are responsible for their handicap being correct at the time of entry expiry. Late entries may be accepted and must be made to Dalsjö GC.

3. Format

The Swedish International Senior Ladies' Championship (50+) will be played at Dalsjö GC during the same period of time. The total maximum number of participants will be 156. Each class will be allowed a minimum of 54 players. The remaining places in the field will be distributed proportionally according to the number of players who entered each class. Form of play will be 54 holes stroke play (18+18+18) with a cut after 36 holes. A total of 75 players plus ties will make the cut. The exact number of players making the cut in each class will be decided proportionally depending on the number of starting players in each class. The competition will be played from a course rated tee with a total maximum length of 5 000–5 300 meters at par 72. The committee must, the day before the commencement of the championship, declare from which tee the championship will be played.

4. Decision of ties

In the event of a tie for the first place after the final round, a hole-by-hole play-off will be used to determine the winner.

5. Miscellaneous

Practice round 3 July is included in the entry fee.
