Swedish International Senior Ladies’ 50+ Championship

Lannalodge Golfresort 10–12 July 2020

For terms of competitions see also Swedish Golf Federation Rules Card, section B.

Terms of competition

1. Participants
The following terms must be fulfilled by a participant:
- female and born 1970 or earlier
- member of a golf club or of a national golf union
- a maximum handicap of 26,0 at the time of entry expiry

2. Entry and withdrawal
Entry must be made by phone or email to Lannalodge Golfresort. Entry expiry is 12 June and entry fee is SEK 800 which must be paid before the time of starting. If more players enter than there are places in the competition the selection of players will be made by lowest exact handicap at the time of entry expiry and a reserve list will be published on the championship website. Players are responsible for their handicap being correct at the time of entry expiry. Late entries can be accepted and must be made to Lannalodge Golfresort.

3. Format
One more championship will be played at Lannalodge Golfresort (Ladies 30+) during the same period of time. The total maximum number of participants will be 156. Each class will be allowed a minimum of 54 players. The remaining places in the field will be distributed proportionally according to the number of players who entered each class. Form of play will be 54 holes stroke play (18+18+18) with a cut after 36 holes. A total of 75 players + ties will make the cut. The exact number of players making the cut in each class will be proportionally depending on the number of starting players in each class. The competition will be played from a course rated tee with a total maximum length of 4 900–5 200 meters at par 72. The committee must, the day before the championship starts, declare from which tee the championship will be played.

4. Decision of ties
In the event of a tie for the first place after the final round, a hole–by–hole play–off will be used to determine the winner.

5. Miscellaneous
Practice round 9 July is included in the entry fee.
